Remembering 9-11

Governor Scott Walker has ordered the flag of the United States and the flag of the State of Wisconsin to be flown at half-staff on Thursday, in remembrance of the tragedy that took place on September 11, 2001.

The proclamation is to honor the victims of the terrorist attacks on September 11 and the men and women in uniform who have served to defend our freedoms at home and abroad.

Congress has designated September 11th of each year as Patriot Day and as a National Day of Service and Remembrance, encouraging all people of the United States to commemorate the day by observing a moment of silence, displaying flags at half-staff, and participating in appropriate ceremonies and acts of community service.
